We kindly ask 15-20 minutes of your time to fill out our survey. To help you decide whether to fill it in, we clarify two points.

“Why should I answer this survey?”

Your participation is essential for us to correctly understand how developers manage Technical Debt.

“What is in it for me?”

Your valuable contributions to TensorFlow are part of the information we analyzed for this study. Thus, if you help us further by answering this survey, there are two immediate benefits:

- you help to improve the efficiency of maintaining the quality of TensorFlow.
- the results will be used to propose recommendations to manage technical debt and create tool support.
